

Benefit for United Cerebral Palsy
of Central California

Re: Bachelor's Ball
September 21, 2007

This package of information is for The Bachelor's Ball, to benefit United Cerebral Palsy of Central California. This is a unique opportunity to help some very important children and adults who through no fault of their own have disabilities that need supporting programs.

My son Bryan, was born with cerebral palsy but his best friend, Adam, was in a car accident at the age of 16 and they are both attending the UCP Adult Center for the Arts and Technology Center in Fresno. We are all just one minute away from the possibility of being disabled and dependent on the help of others. The attached letter from Melisha Ford, Executive Director and the UCP newsletter will give you more valuable information about UCP services and how the funds are used. All of the money stays here in the valley serving seven counties.

Here is how you can help:

- Sponsor a Bachelor. You must have some bachelors on staff that would be a good sport for this worthy cause.
- Choose the level of sponsorship you wish to participate in the Sponsorship Opportunities.
- Be a sponsor even if you do not sponsor a bachelor.
- Date packages. Do you have any special connections that would make a great date package to auction with a bachelor. We have dinners, spa packages for the girls and guys, hot air balloon ride, private yacht on S.F Bay. Any package that is overnight needs to have separate sleeping accommodations. There will be a few double dates or two-three girls with one bachelor if the package is designed. Fill out the auction donation form and fax to Betty G at 229-8650.
- Encourage your employees to go to the event. Men, women and couples are encouraged to attend because we will have dancing with Joe Lennigan's Band after the auction. It will be a Ball.
- Visit www.bachelorsball.com and view the bachelors as we receive their pictures and information.

Please help UCP. They no longer do the telethon and so this event is going to help raise some much needed funds. Thank you for considering a sponsorship.

Smiles and warm wishes,
