Re: Bachelor's Ball
To Benefit United Cerebral Palsy of Central California
September 21, 2007

Pathways: A Foundation for UCP of Central California

It is my pleasure to announce a special event, The Bachelor's Ball, that will benefit United Cerebral Palsy of Central California (UCP).

Your financial support for this event is greatly appreciated. The proceeds from The Bachelor's Ball will help UCP to continue providing services to seven counties, Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Mariposa and Tulare. Today more than 1,000 people with disabilities and their families receive services here in Central California. Each of our programs are designed to fulfill our mission:

To advance the independence, productivity and full citizenship of persons with disabilities.

UCP offers services without charge to persons with disabilities, not just those with cerebral palsy. Funding for programs and services are provided by state contracts, grants, personal funding resources and generous donors like you. Donations and grants from corporations, the public-at-large, and special events provide us with 20% of the 3.1 million dollar budget. The attached material will give you more detailed information.

The Bachelor's Ball is being planned and coordinated by Betty Goertzen, Special Events Planner with Develop Design Do It. She is a professional planner and her son, Bryan, is a student at the UCP Adult Center for the Arts and Technology Center in Fresno. We invite you to tour the facility and you will understand her passion for UCP and the Bachelor's Ball special event on September 21, 2007.

Thank you for your interest in United Cerebral Palsy and we look forward to seeing you at the Bachelor's Ball.

Warm regards,

Melisha Ford, Executive Director
